Dear Faithbridge Family,

As we reflect on the cross of Christ and His resurrection this Easter season, I want to invite you into a devotional reading from the Minister's Prayer Book by John Doberstein. In the anthology, a collection of readings divided into the seven days of the week, one of the readings from Wednesday is as follows:

“The insincerities and the hypocrisies and the basenesses in our own characters take their true name, when we see them in the presence of Him in who God was reconciling the world unto Himself. We do not really know ourselves until we see ourselves before the cross of Christ.

When that self-revelation comes to you, do not shrink from it. [With your life] you will be preaching repentance to others; how shall you preach it unless you have made trial of it yourselves? And the cross, which brings you self-knowledge, bitter and unwelcome though that self-knowledge may be, is the emblem, the pledge and the token, of the reconciling love of God. It shows your sin, but in the self-same moment it holds out to you the hope—nay, the certainty, if you will have it so—of forgiveness and a new life in God.” – Charles Michael Jacobs

O God, holy and eternal, You permit us to enter into the fellowship of that holy suffering by which Your dear Son, our Savior, conquered sin and death. Grant that we may celebrate the remembrance of His passion with true devotion, accept the cross as His disciples, and thus fulfill Your holy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen!

He is risen!

Pastor Jeff

DEACON OF THE MONTH Steve Criswell

Greetings church family. Steve Criswell here. My wife Lucy and I have been married 46 years and we have 4 wonderful kids. Lacey, Stacey, Kacey and Ryan. We also have 4 ‘perfect’ grandkids in Montana. Madison (18) Wes (14) and Margo (2) and Evie (infant) in the Cities.

I grew up in western Montana and moved to Minnesota in 1985. Over the years I have been a CPA, Pastor, but for 27 years was a store owner in Park Rapids. We are both retired now. Lucy and I have attended Faithbridge for 26 years.

My life verse is Romans 5:8. “But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us!”

My spiritual journey has been influenced through the Cubbies ministry of Awana. A 5 year-old girl brought me back to Christ. It is a story I love to share.

It is a honor to serve as a deacon at Faithbridge.

Because He Lives!

FACTS ABOUT ANTACIDS

If you suffer from frequent heartburn you should consult your doctor. While antacids can provide some relief, they're not the best choice for frequent heartburn. Many doctors believe that using antacids improperly could lead to undertreating symptoms or missing a more serious condition. For example, people with GERD (gastroesophageal reflux disease) can develop an inflammation of the esophagus, which is the tube that leads from the throat to the stomach. This can cause bleeding or constriction of the esophagus, making it difficult to swallow.

You might also be trying to treat something antacids won't cure, like a stomach ulcer, gallstones or a problem of the pancreas. Upper abdominal discomfort could even be caused by a serious heart issue.

Overuse of antacids can also lead to abnormally high blood levels of calcium or magnesium— especially if you have kidney problems. Finally, antacids may interfere with absorption of your other medications.

Treating acid reflux, heartburn and indigestion requires a balance of healthy lifestyle and medication. Fried and fatty foods can worsen acid reflux, as can caffeine and acidic foods like lemons or tomatoes. Consuming a large meal shortly before bedtime can also contribute to problems with the esophagus. Making smart lifestyle choices can help keep your digestive system running smoothly while helping you avoid long-term antacid use.

"This year at VBS, we will explore Biblical answers to everyday questions (Why do bad things happen? Why do I need to be saved? Can I trust the Bible?) as we set off on an epic adventure from Genesis to Revelation. The fun jungle cruise will stop at 7 ports of call, the 7 C's of History: Creation, Corruption, Catastrophe, Confusion, Christ, Cross

This year's theme!

Library is open on Sunday mornings: 9:15-10:45 and following the second service

Behind the desk in the library are a couple of shelves of often overlooked Oversized Books. I'd like to draw your attention to three books with high reviews: The Rose Book of Bible Charts, Maps and Timelines; The Rose Book of Bible Charts, Vol. 2; and Deluxe Then and Now Bible Maps. These books contain thousands of facts that will enrich your understanding and study of the Bible and will be a great resource as you teach others about the Word of God, including your children. From an overview of each book in the Old and New Testaments, to maps of Bible lands in Old Testament periods, to the time of Jesus and the disciples, to Paul's missionary journeys, to illustrations of Noah's Ark, Solomon's Temple, the Tabernacle, to key people and events, prophecies and to so much more. "This book is amazing. Never have I seen so much material presented in such an easy-to-access, right-at-hand format." Come take a look for yourself!

NEW FICTION

One Final Target by Janice Cantore - Every police officer knows it's dangerous to serve a warrant---but no one expects an IED to detonate, killing four officers in one deadly explosion. Now it's up to the lone survivor, Sergeant Jodie King, to solve the case. And new detective Sam Gresham fears Jodie may be the intended target! A contemporary romantic suspense about overcoming grief and learning to trust again.

The Yada Yada Prayer Group Gets Tough by Neta Jackson - Prayer is a powerful spiritual weapon. The women of the Chicago-born Yada Yada Prayer Group have developed a strong sisterly bond. They've had a wild year full of joy, sorrow, and a healthy dose of laughter. But just when life gets comfortable, things get shaken up. A white supremacy hate group targets a local university and viciously attacks Nony's husband, barely sparing his life. With their loved one balancing between life and death, the mismatched sisters get tough and their prayer group becomes much more than just a Bible study. It becomes a lifeline.

Water From My Heart by Charles Martin - Left to survive on his own as a teenager, Charlie grows up fast---earning a scholarship to Harvard and learning to survive on the outskirts of privileged society. But when his streetwise East Coast business sense leads to disastrous consequences for a faraway mother and child, will a trip to Nicaragua soften his jaded heart? A breathtaking novel of love and redemption.

Thunder and Rain by Charles Martin - A Texas Ranger with a tough exterior but kind heart is given a second chance at love in this action-packed romance where good triumphs evil. Tough Texas Ranger Tyler Steele never could understand why his marriage failed. And now the cowboy hero is a retired single dad who doesn't know how to rebuild his own life---but he does know how to help two on-the-run innocent strangers in danger! Will Ty confront his weaknesses and become the man he needs to be?

And another DVD from Joyce's Top Twelve – Gifted Hands – the story of Ben Carson, who through his mother's encouragement learned the importance of education and reading and at the age of 33 became the director of pediatric neurosurgery at John Hopkins Hospital, successfully separating conjoined twins joined at the head. Rated PG-13 for one scene of violence.

"The Kinship of Park Rapids youth mentoring program recently enjoyed a friendly competition on the pickleball courts at Faithbridge Church. Mentors, youth and friends bonded over the fun and fast-paced game, promoting teamwork and healthy activity. The supportive atmosphere provided a space for mentees to learn new skills and build confidence, all while having a blast with their Kinship peers."
