DEACON OF THE MONTH Charlie Schmidgall

Charlie and Cathy Schmidgall lived in a farming community for eight years, lived in the Twin Cities for a couple years, then moved to the Park Rapids area in 2001. For 20 years, Charlie was the Facilities Manager at Itasca State Park.

They have three boys, Marko (Samantha) Milosevic, Nate and Jack. They enjoy doting on their three grandkids.

Charlie continues using his woodworking skills as a cabinet maker locally and at Faithbridge.

He came to a relationship with Christ at the age of 32 and says that “I have never looked back or regretted that choice, even tho I struggle sometimes with my faith but thank God, He is faithful.”

Charlie enjoys the whole Word of God but is especially drawn to the verse in Genesis 1:27. “So God created man in His own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.”

FIVE RED FLAG WARNING SIGNS —the 'FACES' of Heart Failure

Heart failure occurs when something reduces the heart's ability to pump your blood effectively. Most often, the damage stems from coronary artery disease (CAD) or heart attack. In addition, faulty heart valves, long-term high blood pressure, or genetic disease may also be to blame.

To help spot a possible combination of heart failure symptoms, the Heart Failure Society of America (www.HFSA.org) has developed a handy tool that goes by the acronym FACES. By themselves, these five warning signs do not confirm a diagnosis of heart failure, but they do convey a sense of urgency to seek medical advice. If you experience any of these signs, cut out this handy checklist to discuss with your doctor.

F Fatigue. When the heart can't pump enough oxygen-rich blood to meet the body's energy needs, a general feeling of tiredness or fatigue sets in.

A Activity. People with heart failure are often unable to do their normal activities because they become easily tired and short of breath.

C Congestion. Fluid buildup in the lungs can result in coughing, wheezing, and breathing difficulties.

E Edema (ankle swelling). When the heart becomes too weak or stiff to pump blood out to the body, fluid can back up and collect in the ankles, lower legs, and abdomen. This excess fluid may cause rapid weight gain.

S Shortness of breath. Fluid in the lungs makes it more difficult for carbon dioxide in the 'used' blood to be exchanged for fresh oxygen. It may also be harder to breathe when lying down, because gravity allows fluid from lower in the body to travel up and into the lungs.

Your cardiovascular system is complex—with a lot of moving parts. Heart failure is just one of dozens of heart and vascular problems you could potentially face during your lifetime, especially as you grow older. Cardiovascular disease is the leading cause of death in the United States, accounting for 1 out of 3 deaths. The good news is that there is state-of-the-art testing available and many new medications on the market to treat the symptoms. So check with your physician and stay informed!

Harvard Heart Letter

"This year at VBS, we will explore Biblical answers to everyday questions (Why do bad things happen? Why do I need to be saved? Can I trust the Bible?) as we set off on an epic adventure from Genesis to Revelation.

The fun jungle cruise will stop at 7 ports of call, the 7 C's of History: Creation, Corruption, Catastrophe, Confusion, Christ, Cross and Consummation. The kids will discover how these events shape our world, and they will learn to reconnect the Bible to their everyday lives."

Library is open on Sunday mornings: 9:15-10:00 and following the second service until 11:30.

Karen Kingsbury, the #1 New York Times bestselling novelist, has written numerous series, many that we have in our church library. The Baxters - Redemption Series, written in 2009, is made up of five books, Redemption, Remember, Return, Rejoice, and Reunion, and is now an original series on Prime Video. If you've watched the series on TV and want to learn more, or even if you haven't, come in and get acquainted with this life-changing fiction, co-authored by Gary Smalley.

Because of the recent production of Someone Like You as a major motion picture and the showing of The Baxters TV series, I've chosen some of Kingsbury's newer books to add to our library. If you are one of her fans, you will be familiar with many of the characters from her Baxter novels. But newcomers to the series will get enough background information to enjoy these books as well.

Maybe you saw the movie or maybe you planned to but missed it; now you can read the book Someone Like You by Karen Kingsbury. It is the story of twins separated during their parents' IVF (In vitro fertilization) procedure. It's a beautiful and redemptive love story.

In Forgiving Paris by Karen Kingsbury, Ashley Baxter Blake and her husband take an anniversary trip to Paris, where Ashley is confronted with her past. An exploration of love and forgiveness. Sometimes the only way to healing is to return to where it all began.

Just Once by Karen Kingsbury is a WWII tale. Irvel Ellis is facing a heart-wrenching dilemma---she's dating Sam but discovers she's in love with his brother, Hank. As she agonizes over options, Pearl Harbor is attacked, Sam is drafted, Hank soon enlists, and Irvel is recruited by the Office of Strategic Services to work for the U.S. military, a secret mission that she must reveal to no one. Will Irvel lose everything, or will love find a way?

A Heart Adrift by Laura Frantz, a new-to-our-library author, is a tale of second chances and brave choices. The setting is colonial York and Williamsburg, VA. It is 1755, and the threat of war with France is looming.

Captain Henry Lennox has returned to port after a lengthy absence, intent on completing the lighthouse in the dangerous Chesapeake Bay, a dream he once shared with Esmee Shaw, a chocolatier. Can their shared vision and dedication to the colonial cause heal the wounds of the past and reunite them?

And another DVD from Joyce's Top Twelve – Song From the Heart. Amy Grant plays the part of a blind cellist and music teacher at the Milford Conservatory of Music. Maryann enjoys her quiet, comfortable life with her friend and widowed neighbor, Oliver, until a world-famous musician visits the Conservatory to record an upcoming album. He sees undiscovered talent in Maryann and convinces her to undergo a risky eye operation. It takes a life-changing moment for Maryann to realize that sometimes, true love is waiting right before our eyes.

Spring Senior Day at Camp Lebanon

Five Faith Force Seniors attended the Senior Spring Day at Camp Lebanon. It was a beautiful day full of good fellowship, enthusiastic hymn singing, great chapel message, wonderful musical presentation, great outdoor activities and good food.

We encourage you to set aside the date of September 17th for the Fall Senior Day. We'd love to take a van full of seniors to Camp that day.

Some takeaways: 235 in attendance $16,500 raised for chairs in the new gym.

Faith Mission Circle ladies had the honor of making and serving pies for LaMae's Celebration of Life.

They calculated that 28 pies were served, two of them being the extra-large size that serves 12. With all of the miscellaneous slices left over, there was about one pie left! Around 225 slices of pie were eaten! LaMae would have loved to serve pie to so many people! It was a wonderful event to remember the life of a memorable lady!
