Dear Faithbridge Family,

Welcome to Spring of 2025!

Easter is almost upon us and it is one of my favorite times in the church calendar as we celebrate the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Christ's sacrifice on the cross of Calvary did not simply purchase our salvation from sin, it also gives new life—eternal life—that we are called to embrace and learn to live in now.

The Apostle Paul puts it this way in his letter to Pastor Titus of the church of Christ in Crete, "But when the goodness and lovingkindness of God our Savior appeared, He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to His own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom He poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by His grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. The saying is trustworthy (true), and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for people" (Titus 3:4-8, ESV).

Paul is commending Titus to remind the Christians of Crete that the salvation they received through Christ gives the hope of eternal life; it is life-giving. The outflow of that life-giving hope is that Christians will then be devoted to giving life to others through good works. In fact, the good works that are the result of Christ's life-giving sacrifice and the renewal and regeneration of the Holy Spirit, are "excellent and profitable" (in the sense of being good for) people."

Paul goes on to remind Titus that those who have been regenerated and renewed by the Holy Spirit "avoid foolish controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and quarrels about the law, for they are unprofitable (not good for people) and worthless. As for a person who stirs up division, after warning him once and then twice, have nothing more to do with him, knowing that such a person is warped and sinful; he is self-condemned" (Titus 3:9-11, ESV).

Christ died on the cross and was resurrected to not only save us from our sin, but to also save us for the purpose of loving God and loving others. Salvation from sin is not just a one-time event; it is a daily practice of obedience and service, to work out our salvation with fear and trembling. This is the process of sanctification whereby we partner and cooperate with the indwelling Holy Spirit to do His work of making us more and more like Jesus in our thoughts, our feelings, our attitudes, our actions, in every part of our lives. And this sanctification will only be completed by either our physical death or Christ's return.

May we joyfully embrace not just our salvation, but also that daily renewal and sanctifying process to the glory of Christ this Easter season and every season between! Amen? Amen!

DEACON OF THE MONTH Drew Maninga

Drew and Sarah Maninga have been married for 10 years and have three beautiful daughters, Emery (5), Rosa (3) and Hilda (10 month).

Drew grew up in Menahga and has attended Faithbridge since 1998. His Sunday School teacher, Dave Vocolka, pointed the way to Christ in class and while riding home with his mom, Becky, he prayed to ask Jesus into his heart. He was baptized by Pastor Russ Paulson in Spirit Lake. At Faithbridge he has also served on the Trustee Board. In his "spare" time he enjoys farming and hunting when not working for the city of Sebeka Public Works.

His favorite verse is Hebrews 12:1-2 "Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God."

Introducing Librarian, Nick Thelen

Nick Thelen (26) is the son of Jim and Julie Thelen and brother to Trevor. He grew up in Elk River, and moved to Park Rapids his sophomore year of high school. He will be starting his third season at Touch of Eden as a Landscaper. His family has attended Faithbridge for almost two years. He and his mom, Julie, were baptized last December and became church members in 2024. God has put on his heart to serve Him in the Library ministry. His goal for this ministry is to provide good solid biblical resources so that we each can grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ and be effective witnesses of His Gospel in our community.

GOD'S PROVISION FOR OUR SPIRITUAL HUNGER

Most of us are blessed to be able to enjoy three meals a day, with snacks in between. We live in a 'land of plenty'. Our bellies are routinely satisfied, but do we still feel another kind of hunger inside of us? There are three types of hunger that all of us should be concerned with: physical, psychological and spiritual.

Physical hunger occurs when your stomach is empty and your brain signals that it needs to be satisfied with food— stomach growling, thoughts about food and feelings of irritability, tiredness or poor concentration.

Psychological hunger causes us to eat due to our emotions— boredom, stress, sadness or loneliness.

Spiritual hunger is a type of hunger created by God within each of us — a hunger for Himself. This is often a feeling that we're lacking or missing 'something'. We may feel incomplete or unsatisfied with our lives. This type of hunger can only be satisfied by His Word. In Matthew 4:4 Jesus quotes from the Old Testament, saying "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God." Later in John 6:35, Jesus says, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst."

I wonder if we have considered that our main spiritual meal is to be enjoyed at church when we gather with our church family. Many of us may think of Bible reading and studying only as an individual activity, but we are called to gather together and 'feast' on His Word. We are corporately nourished by hearing the Word preached, reading the Word together, praying through the Word and singing the Word through music. It's a time of fellowship and celebration that truly feeds our souls and keeps us spiritually healthy. Snacking is okay, but we need bigger meals in order to go deeper in our study of the Word.

The church is the body of Christ and it needs (we need) a full, well-rounded meal of God's Word in order to grow and thrive together. There is no limit to the amount of this food you can consume— so eat it to your heart's content!

Snack Drive for Red River Youth For Christ

Thank you so much for supplying snacks that are given when the teens memorize Scripture!

Crystal Hataaja is asking for prayer as she goes on a mission trip to Guatemala April 1-15 with Students International and the LIFT (Leaders In Further Training) program. The team will be divided up into different job sites, where they will be working with the missionaries and locals to provide God's love and help for the people there. She asked us to pray for her, as it's her first international flight, and for dealing with culture shock. She also said the area already has a lot of missionaries, pray that her group will fit in well.

Some Adult Mission Trips are still being considered. Is your passport up to date? More info to come in the future.

God has given us more opportunities to be the hands and feet of Jesus. Let's answer the call.

Be sure to read the latest news from our missionaries - letters are located in the East and West foyer kiosks.

The King Who Found His Self-Control- This fun fable, written by Costi and Christyne Hinn, teaches children the importance of having self-control and explains how true change — the kind only the great King Jesus can bring — always starts in our hearts. More than just a cute bedtime story, King Ira's tale can lead to meaningful talks with your children about our everyday battle with sin and how we can ask God to help us resist the temptation to act out.

The Farmer Who Chose to Plant Kindness- This biblically based fable, written by Costi and Christyne Hinn, teaches children the consequences of selfishness and how genuine, Christ-like kindness can be contagious. Based on teachings from the book of Ephesians, it helps children see how their choices and attitudes influence others, what to do when they sin, and most importantly, how to sow kindness wherever they go.

New Books for April

Consider the Lilies: Finding Perfect Peace in the Character of God- Is my cancer back? Is my job secure? Will I ever get married? Are my children safe? Our lives are often a chronicle of trouble, pain, and uncertainty, and God's children yearn for peace. Many people who wrestle with anxiety and despair know that the Bible calls them to "trust God," but what does that even mean? Find freedom from anxiety as you shift your gaze from the problems and pressures of this world to the changeless and powerful character of your heavenly Father.

Walking in God's Will: Demystify God's Plan for Your Life and Make Decisions with Confidence- Do you feel paralyzed by major life decisions because you're afraid of missing God's plan for your life? Do you wonder how God's will works in tandem with your choices, experiences, and desires? In this timeless guidebook, Costi Hinn offers readers an expansive map of what Scripture says about God's will. You'll learn how to overcome common decision-making crippers, distinguish God's voice from your own, and experience peace, joy, and confidence with each life choice, big or small.

Family Shepherds: Calling and Equipping Men to Lead Their Homes- It's hard to overestimate the importance of the family, and that of fathers in particular. We've heard it said, "As the family goes, so goes the nation." But it also can be said that "as the father goes, so goes the family." "Family Shepherds" is a book for any husband or father looking to lead well, and it will serve as an excellent resource for churches looking to equip the men in their congregations.

Redeeming Productivity: Getting More Done for the Glory of God- Do you often feel overworked and overrun, defeated and discouraged? Readers will discover manageable applications such as giving God the first fruits of our days. Additionally, Reagan discusses how our perspective on suffering can be transformed when we view trials as God's pruning us for greater productivity.

Expository Apologetics: Answering Objections with the Power of the Word- Apologetics is for everyone. Believers are called to defend their faith. However, if apologetics is the formal process that sounds like an impossible task. But what if apologetics could be part of natural, normal conversation — both from the pulpit and in everyday life? Expository Apologetics sets forth an approach to apologetics that is rooted in Scripture and eminently accessible. Filled with real-world examples and practical advice, this book will equip you with the tools you need to think biblically and converse persuasively — offering unbelievers "a reason for the hope that is in you."
