Been Baptized?

It's simple. Jesus instructed, "Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned." Mark 16:16

And that's what those who chose to follow Him did. Baptism is an obedient outward sign of an inward conversion experience – and it's a celebration into a new life!

If you'd like to be baptized, or need more information, please contact the Office. You may also fill out a "Form" on our Website under the "events" tab.

There will be a Baptism Class on Sunday, July 13th in the Fireside Room between Services for those who want to be baptized.

FAITH FORCE SENIORS

Seniors are invited to join our monthly potluck on July 28th. We meet at 11:45 am in the Fellowship Hall for a time of fellowship, a potluck meal and a short program. We look forward to hearing a presentation from Steve Foster, creator of Grandma Foster's BBQ Sauce, businessman and youth advocate. Invite a friend and bring a dish or two to share.

FAITH MISSION CIRCLE

Faith Mission Circle will be meeting on Monday, July 21, at 1:00. We will meet in the Conference Room by the South entrance. Please join us as we pray together and discuss the needs of our missionaries. It's a time of travel and transition for many of them. Tense international situations can have a direct influence on their daily lives and the lives of those they are serving. We have the privilege of serving them through prayer.

Dear Faithbridge Family,

Recently, hundreds of people gathered along Highway 34 holding signs and protesting “No Kings” day. It was a very interesting spectacle to witness in our otherwise quiet sidewalks. I am all for our 1st Amendment right of free speech and free assembly; no problems there at all. Even if I am not quite sure what the speech and assembly is about. My understanding is that “No Kings” day is celebrated in the United States every 4th of July, commonly known as Independence Day, after the signing of the Declaration of Independence signifying the Thirteen Colonies independence from the English monarchy. But that could just be me.

In thinking deeper about this “No Kings” day, however, it struck me that as a disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ, I cannot, in good faith or conscience, participate in a “No Kings” day. Why? Because Jesus is my King. And if you are also a disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ, then He is your king, too. There are three references in the New Testament that state that not only is Jesus King, He is the King of kings, the ultimate King over all the universe.

We find the first reference in Paul’s first letter to Timothy in anticipation of Christ’s return from heaven, “...which He will display at the proper time—He who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords” (1 Timothy 6:15, ESV). During Jesus’ first coming He came as Savior and Rescuer, Healer and Sanctifier, to declare that the “kingdom of God was at hand”. When He comes again it will be as King and Sovereign to consummate and fulfill that which He established with His first Advent.

The second and third references to Christ as King of kings are found in John’s Revelation. Chapter seventeen, verse fourteen states, “They [the ten kings and the beast] will make war on the Lamb [that is Jesus Christ], and the Lamb will conquer them, for He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those with Him are called and chosen and beautiful.” And in Revelation 19:16 we see this name attributed to the Rider on a white horse who is called “The Word of God” (19:13); “On His robe and on His thigh He has a name written, King of kings and Lord of lords” (19:16).

The Lord Jesus Christ is the King of kings, and He rules and reigns from heaven, seated at the right hand of His heavenly Father. Jesus is king overall, those who believe in Him and affirm His kingship and authority and even those who reject Him and deny His kingship and authority, and even who deny His existence. Simply because you reject something or choose to ignore someone does not mean it is not true, or they don’t exist. People reject or ignore the reality of the Kingship of Christ at their own peril.

Let us, then, as children of the King live our lives in honor and homage to our King. Let us worship Him, let us learn from Him, and let us follow Him as He leads us into greater fellowship with Him and each other. “No kings”? I don’t think so. We serve the greatest King of all, King Jesus. Instead of protesting Him, may we be bold at waving His banner each and every day!

Grace and peace, Pastor Jeff

A special Sunday to Celebrate what the Lord has been doing in our lives and in the life of Faithbridge Church. Stay tuned to find out all the exciting things to expect—including Baptisms, Child Dedication, Worship, a Concert and of course, food!

The purpose of Child Dedication is for parents to present their child before God and the church, committing to seek after His grace and wisdom in carrying out their responsibilities.

We extend the opportunity to parents for this dedication on July 27th. If you would like to participate, please fill out the form found under Get Involved on the website at www.faithbridgepr.org/forms

An Adult Mission Trip with Tapestries of Life Ministry, in Mexico is being planned for January 10-17, 2026! More details at the East Welcome Desk. Check your calendar, pray and ask God if He wants you to be one of those to go!

Special Project need in a restricted country:

Donations are needed to help redo a primitive kitchen (presently, a dirt floor, spicket instead of faucet, bucket instead of a sink, small table instead of counters, etc.) The lady who cooks for students at a Bible teaching school prepares meals in these conditions. The total cost for materials is estimated to be $6250.

If you would like to help, please contact one of the Mission Team members listed below, for specifics as to how to donate and for the address of where to send it. Donations will go to the sending organization, not though Faithbridge.

Melody Johnson 255-0143, Joyce Killmer 252-1659, Bev Sleen 252-2092
Becky Maninga 820-4320 Christy Munson 255-1517 or Sue Parks 820-6439.

God has given us more opportunities to be the hands and feet of Jesus. Let's answer the call.

Be sure to read the latest news from our missionaries - letters are located in the East and West foyer kiosks.

Come and join us as we gather to sing praises and worship the Lord together.

Your hymn choice - we sing. Also, a time of reflection, testimony and memories.

6 PM, Sunday, July 13th in the Sanctuary

HYDRATION in the SUMMER

During the summer months when weather is much hotter and more humid, it is important to drink more fluid than usual especially if you are actively enjoying the outdoors or exercising. You can become dehydrated if you take too little fluid during this time. Some people are known to experience exercise-induced low sodium (hyponatremia), which can cause some unpleasant physical side-effects; so finding a balance is important.

The purpose of drinking fluid — whether it's water or electrolyte-containing beverages— is to rehydrate the body and put fluid back into your system so that your organs can function properly. How much to drink and when depends on your situation. Generally, it's recommended that you should consume at least two liters of water or other non-caffeinated beverages per day. The general rule of thumb among healthcare professionals is to 'drink to thirst'; although sometimes thirst isn't always a helpful indicator. It is best to listen to and look at your body for indications of when you need hydration, such as sweating, flushing, dizziness, headache, etc.

As far as what to drink, for most people, water is the best place to start; however, those who engage in extensive exercise may need a beverage that replaces lost nutrients and electrolytes due to sweating. Sodium is important because it helps you absorb glucose and water. Aim for 450 milligrams of sodium per 24 ounces of a sports drink. Avoid salt tablets, as they do not include all the electrolytes you need and you can easily use too much. Drinks with some carbohydrates are good since they provide fuel for your working muscles, but pay attention to the amount of sugar intake— too much can cause gastrointestinal issues, including bloating, cramping or diarrhea. The recommended amount of sugar is below 30 grams per 24 ounces of a sport drink.

As you spend time outdoors, be aware of symptoms of dehydration, which can include:

Extreme thirst	Fatigue	Dizziness	Confusion
Less frequent and amount of urination	Dark-colored urine

If any of these occur, it's best to stop activity, hydrate and potentially seek medical attention.

So, here's to your health— drink up!

Biblical Podcast Recommendations

In a world full of false teaching, there is a desperate need for the church of Jesus Christ to learn and hold fast to sound biblical teaching. The podcasts below will help listeners see a variety of topics through a biblical lens so that we can live out the mission Christ has given to us as His body.

- For the Gospel with Pastor Costi Hinn provides sound doctrine for ordinary people. Costi discusses practical topics and answers tough questions, to inspire listeners to live for the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

- Dial in Ministries with Pastor Jonny Ardavanis. Jonny is passionate about equipping the next generation with Biblical teaching so that they might know, love and proclaim Jesus Christ.

- Transformed with certified Biblical counselor, Dr. Greg Gifford. In his podcast, anxiety, loneliness, depression and fear meet the Bible. If you struggle with any emotional issues don't miss Dr. Gifford as he applies the Scriptures in ways that will help you.

- Grace to You Radio Podcast with Pastor John MacArthur. This powerful podcast will boost your spiritual growth by helping you understand and apply God's Word to your life and the life of your family and church. John MacArthur has offered his practical, verse-by-verse Bible teaching for more than 55 years.

- The Alisa Childers Podcast with Apologist Alisa Childers. Christians will learn how to identify and defend the core beliefs of historic Christianity, discern its counterfeits, and proclaim the gospel with clarity, kindness, and truth.

- Sound Plus Doctrine with Pastor Bob Kauflin and David Zimmer. This podcast of Sovereign Grace Music is designed to provide a rich understanding of worship to those who participate in a church's music ministry on Sunday mornings.

- The Living Waters Podcast with Evangelist Ray Comfort. This podcast explores the pressing questions of our day using sound theology and apologetics. Living Waters vision is to inspire and equip Christians to fulfill the Great Commission.

- Bible Talk with Alex Duke, Sam Emadi and Jim Hamilton. This podcast starts in Genesis 1:1 and discusses the Scriptures, section-by-section, in a way that helps the listener understand how all of God's redemptive story weaves together perfectly.

Please be in prayer over the summer about your role with AWANA at Faithbridge this fall.

Keep your eyes open as you browse clearance aisles this summer for fun/appropriate T&T store items to donate!

For your prayerful Consideration...

Next fall we will be looking for leaders and float listeners, a T&T secretary, and another check-in desk person. It has been a great year of AWANA! Please pray for a season of rest for our volunteers and that they will know and be blessed through their valuable dedication and efforts in this ministry!

Karen Hoglund, missionary to Uganda, recently met up with members of the Faith Mission Circle for afternoon coffee. It was a great time to get better acquainted with her (and her remarkable mother, pictured here)!

A prayer shared by Kyle and Lara S:

You move and shift people and events in our lives all on Your perfect timing and for Your very good purposes ... and for our good.

Even when we don't see anything at all,

You are so faithful to us -- always.

Even when our faith is so weak,

Even when our feelings, doubts and insecurities
get in the way of Truth,

You are so faithful to us and Your good plan for us.

Praise be to You, our Rock!

Our Strong Refuge, You are still in control -- in troubles, confusion, frustration, doubts, and difficulties.

You are our Lord and You are our everything.

Praise be to our Rock!

Hoppe, Bill and Cindy AWANA

Missionaries to E, N Central & NE Minnesota & NW WI.

1. Praising the Lord for those who are serving in summer ministries like camp and VBS.
2. Praise that Bill had the opportunity to be a presenter at the Resilient Child Discipleship Training in Iowa.
3. Pray that the Lord will raise up men and women to become Awana Missionaries, because they have a heart for discipling children.

Latham, Shane and Erin Brazil with DNA Global Network

Serving in south Brazil by using God's gifts to make disciples, plant churches, and send missionaries to the world.

1. Pray for safety in travel as they prepare for a quick trip back to the States later this summer.
2. Praising the Lord for the opportunity to disciple others while planting and helping house churches to grow. Pray that the daughter churches will take steps to disciple in obedience to Christ.
3. Pray for our ministry to our family as we care for Shane's dad and to kids and grandkids.

Mitchell, Paul and Gloria Oak Hills Christian College Director of the Mokahum Ministry Center.

1. Mokahum is excited to be taking application requests for the coming 25-26 school year already. Our prayer is to have 9 students this fall and to be ready to minister, guide and lead students into the Word as we disciple them.
2. Pray for staff and financial blessings to help meet the needs of Mokahum. Specifically in raising support to help pay for therapy and counseling for students. Coming off the "Rez" is an enormous cultural shock and requires a restart of sorts mentally and spiritually. We need to be able to support students as they take a step of faith by coming to Mokahum.

Parks, Larry and Jane Spain with ABWE

Church planting and working with local believers in outreach ministries to community.

1. God has been good to help us finish the distribution of Christian literature in four pueblos in the target area for the Mora church.
2. We thank the Lord that two of the familias in Mora are getting their paperwork which makes them legal residents of the country.
3. Praying that God will provide the work needed for these new families.
4. Praying for souls as the church in Mora continues its campaign to foment the reading of the Holy Scriptures among the people of the area.
